WORK EXPERIENCE

HEAD GRADE ONE TEACHER

American Pacific International School

SEP 2016 – MAR 2019

Working as the head grade one Primary School teacher, I taught English and Science core subjects. I received training in International Primary Curriculum (IPC) and was responsible for running the grade one IPC afternoon program. I was also responsible for assigning and checking homework assignments, implementing formative and summative assessment, preparing daily and weekly lesson plans, and designing and decorating the classroom.

PRIMARY ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEACHER

Western International School

OCT 2011 – SEP 2016

As a teacher at Western International School, I taught students from Kindergarten to middle school levels, with a focus on the four main language skills (reading, writing, speaking, and listening) in an academic environment. I was responsible for writing and submitting weekly lesson plan, designing and implementing monthly tests, and assigning and checking homework assignments. I received awards for teacher of the semester for four consecutive years (2012 - 2016) as voted on by my students and supervisors.

HOME TUTOR

REIM Edu Tutoring Service Center

SEP 2014 – JUN 2015

Working part-time as a home tutor, I worked one-on-one with my student to provide homework assistance. I also prepared tailored lessons to suit my client's individual needs with a focus on building core English skills.

CONVERSATIONAL ESL TEACHER

Conversations with Foreigners

FEB 2011 – MAY 2011

As a volunteer ESL teacher, I was responsible for planning and facilitating English classes with a focus on conversational skills through the use of class and group discussions, guided conversations, class debates, and a wide variety of games to increase students' fluency and confidence in speaking skills.

HOME ESL TUTOR

University Presbyterian Church

NOV 2008 – MAR 2010

Working as a volunteer home tutor through the language institute at my church, I assisted primary school students in completing and understanding their homework. In addition, I designed and implemented activities and exercises to improve their core English skills.
